To support such populations, New Leaf has created the following Plan to Positively Impact Areas of Disproportionate Impact (the “Plan”) and has identified numerous goals and priorities.

Goals

New Leaf seeks to provide business assets (time, organization skills, finances) towards endeavors in the City of Fall River a geographical location designated as a disproportionately impacted area that will have a positive impact on the members of that community or the community as a whole.

Programs

Our commitment is an essential part of the company’s ethos. Specifically, New Leaf will make an annual donation of $1,000 or 1% of gross sales revenue, whichever is greater, to the Corky Row Neighborhood Association in Fall River, Massachusetts. The mission of the Corky Row Neighborhood Association is to improve the lives of residents of Corky Row. Funds provided by New Leaf will be directed towards community clean ups that have been conducted each year in the spring and fall and to the Association’s annual June Community Day Event. At least three (3) New Leaf employees will participate in each event.

Corky Row will accept any resources contributed to it by New Leaf as outlined in the enclosed correspondence.

Measurements

New Leaf will audit the plan annually upon renewal of its Provisional Certificate and will disclose and track measurement metrics. Metrics tracked will include the following:

1. Funds donated to the Corky Row Neighborhood Association, which must exceed $1,000 or 1 percent of gross sales revenue;
2. Number of employees participating in Corky Row's clean up days, which must exceed three; and

Section 3. Certificates of Stock.

Each stockholder shall be entitled to a certificate in form selected by the Board of Directors stating the number and the held by him. Such certificate shall be signed by the President or a Vice-President and the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer. Such signatures may be facsimiles if the certificate is signed by a transfer agent, or by a registrar, other than a Director, officer or employee of the corporation. Every certificate for shares of stock subject to any restriction on transfer pursuant to the Articles or Organization, these By-Laws, or any agreement to which the corporation is a party shall have the restriction noted conspicuously on the certificate and shall also set forth on the face or back either the full text of the restriction or a statement of the existence of such restriction and a statement that the corporation will furnish a copy to the holder of such certificate upon written request and without charge. Every certificate issued when the corporation is authorized to issue more than one class or series of stock shall set forth on its face or back either the full text or the preferences, voting powers, qualifications and special and relative rights of the shares of each class and series authorized to be issued or a statement of the existence of such preferences, powers, qualifications and rights, and a statement that the corporation will furnish a copy thereof to the holder of such certificate upon written request and without charge.

Section 4. Transfers.

Subject to the restrictions, if any, imposed by the Articles of Organization, these By-Laws or any agreement to which the corporation is a party, shares of stock shall be transferred on the books of the corporation only by the surrender to the corporation or its transfer agent of the certificate representing such shares properly endorsed or accompanied by a written assignment of such shares or by a written power of attorney to sell, assign, or transfer such shares, properly executed, with necessary transfer stamps affixed, and with such proof that the endorsement, assignment or power of attorney is genuine and effective as the corporation or its transfer agent may reasonably require. Except as may be otherwise required by law, the corporation shall be entitled to treat the record holder of stock as shown on its books as the owner of such stock for all purposes, including the payment of dividends and the right to vote with respect thereto, regardless of any transfer, pledge or other disposition of such stock, until the shares have been transferred on the books of the corporation in accordance with the requirements of these By-Laws. It shall be the duty of each stockholder to notify the corporation of his post office address.

Section 5. Dividends.

The holders of shares of Preferred Shares shall be entitled to receive dividends, out of any assets legally available therefor, prior and in preference to any declaration or payment of any distribution (including but not limited to any dividend) payable other than in Common Shares (in each case as adjusted for stock splits, stock dividends, reclassifications and the like) per annum for each share held by them, when, as and if declared by the board of directors ("Board of Directors") of the Corporation. Such distributions shall not be cumulative. After payment of such distributions, any additional distributions shall be distributed among the holders of Common Shares and Preferred Shares pro rata based on the number of shares of Common Shares then held by each holder. No distributions shall be paid with respect to the Common Shares until equal or greater distributions on the Preferred Shares have been paid to the holders of Preferred Shares.

Section 6. Lost, Mutilated or Destroyed Certificates.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Board of Directors may determine the conditions upon which a new certificate of stock may be issued in place of any certificate alleged to have been lost, mutilated or destroyed. It may, in its discretion, require the owner of a lost, mutilated or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to give a bond, sufficient in its opinion, with or without surety, to indemnify the corporation against any loss or claim which may arise by reason of the issue of a certificate in place of such lost, mutilated or destroyed stock certificate.

Section 7. Transfer Agent and Registrar.

In the event shares, the certificate for which notes a restriction on transfer established in the manner set out above, or in any other manner, are presented as aforesaid for transfer, the Corporation or its transfer agent may issue a new certificate or certificates in accordance with such transfer, but such new certificate or certificates shall bear the same notations as to restrictions on transfer as appear on the certificate presented for transfer unless the Corporation or its transfer agent receives such proof as is in its sole discretion satisfactory to it that such restrictions no longer apply.

In the event shares of stock are issued by the Corporation or are presented to it for transfer the issuance or transfer of which might involve directly or indirectly the applicability of federal or state law regulating the issuance and sale of securities, the Corporation in the case of issuance and the Corporation or its transfer agent in the case of transfer may require that the certificate or certificates originally issued and those issued on transfer be endorsed with such language as in their sole discretion may be necessary in respect of the Corporation's duties and liabilities under such laws.

No course of action undertaken in good faith by the Corporation or its transfer agent, nor any delay resulting therefrom, shall entitle a Stockholder or its transferee or proposed transferee to reimbursement by the Corporation or its transfer agent or any director or officer or agent thereof for any loss occasioned by such course of action or delay. Nothing contained in these By-laws shall be construed to deprive the Corporation or its transfer agent of any rights which it may have to refuse to transfer any shares of stock.

Except as otherwise required by law, the Articles of Organization or these By-laws, the Corporation shall be entitled to treat the record holder of stock as shown on its books as the owner of such stock for all purposes, regardless of any transfer, pledge or other disposition of such stock, until the shares have been transferred on the books of the Corporation pursuant to these By-Laws.

It shall be the duty of each Stockholder to notify the Corporation of the post office address to which he wishes all communications by the Corporation to him as Stockholder addressed and delivered.

Section 8. Setting Record Date and Closing Transfer Records

The Board of Directors may fix in advance a time not more than sixty days before (i) the date of any meeting of the stockholders or (ii) the date for the payment of any dividend or the making of any distribution to stockholders or (iii) the last day on which the consent or dissent of stockholders may be effectively expressed for any purpose, as the record date for determining the stockholders having the right to notice and to vote at such meeting, or the right to receive such dividend or distribution, or the right to give such consent or dissent. If a record date is set, only stockholders of record on the date shall have such right notwithstanding any transfer of stock on the records of the corporation after the record date. Without fixing such record date, the Board of Directors may close the transfer records of the corporation for all or any part of such sixty-day period. If no record date is fixed and the transfer books are not closed, then the record date for determining stockholders having the right to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given, and the record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors acts with respect thereto.

Section 9. Valuation of Stock.

Bi-annually, the Board of directors shall value the stock value of each share and file said valuation with the minutes of the Corporation.

Section 10. Restrictions.

The provisions and restrictions of this By-Law shall apply to all shares subsequently issued by the Corporation, but after this By-Law shall expire and the restrictions provided herein on transfer of shares shall not thereafter apply to any shares of the Corporation.

The certificate of stock shall contain the following statement made in accordance with M.G.L. c. 156B, § 27(b):

The shares represented by this certificate are subject to certain transfer restrictions as set forth in the duly adopted By-Laws of the Corporation, and the Corporation will furnish a copy thereof to the holder of such certificate upon written request and without charge therefor.

Pedro's WHY

If you have ever met Pedro Fernandes, you haven't forgotten him. You most likely remember his enthusiasm and vibrant energy, but you definitely remember his signature high-fives and smile that never leaves his face. Though the smiles come easily, Pedro has endured his share of hardships, which have molded him into who he is today.

Pedro immigrated to the United States with his family when he was just 11 months old, choosing Fall River as their new home. They all fell in love with the bustling, diverse City and started growing their roots there. Pedro's parents established and ran their own restaurant, which still thrives, and taught Pedro and his sister about entrepreneurship. What appealed to Pedro about entrepreneurship, even at a young age, was the idea of controlling one's own destiny, and having the ability to change other people's lives for the better in the process.

Pedro's natural energy and interpersonal skills were a perfect fit for Real Estate & Network Marketing career. He was able to create and lead one of the most successful teams in the country. Some of Pedro's best skills were honed during this time – his leadership and motivational abilities are remarkable. He naturally loves to get people excited about what he is excited about – his enthusiasm is contagious. He has inspired many people to become the best versions of themselves through leading by example.

Though he was able to succeed in his career, Pedro endured tremendous pain and suffering due to severe hip issues. In 2014 he was given the diagnosis of Osteoarthritis of the hips - a debilitating and degenerative condition. Pedro, never one to be kept down, kept pushing forward. In 2016, Pedro met Mark Conrad, the President of the Corky Row Neighborhood Association, at a business event. Upon learning what Mark was doing and planning to do to improve the Corky Row neighborhood, Pedro wanted to be involved right away, but the health condition he was facing prevented this from happening. In 2017, a wheelchair bound Pedro took a trip to Israel, where he prayed and asked for healing. He promised his creator at this time that if he could ever walk again, he would serve a greater good, and give his all to helping others. This promise is what inspired Pedro to seek out the best Doctor and surgeon in the country, who happened to be in Seattle, Washington. It was determined that bilateral hip surgeries, one hip at a time, was the optimal route to take. While in Seattle, where cannabis is legal, it was suggested to Pedro to try CBD products for pain. He credits CBD for pain relief, speedy recovery, and discontinuing the use of narcotic pain medication very quickly after each surgery. After 2 trips to Seattle, 2 hip surgeries, 2 long periods of healing, and hours upon hours of grueling physical therapy, Pedro was able to walk again. Humbled by the experience, Pedro credits the surgeon, physical therapists, and CBD products for helping his healing and overall success of the surgeries. Anyone who knows him will tell you that most of the success is due to his dogged determination to succeed.

During his recovery period after his second hip surgery, while using CBD oil, Pedro began thinking of ways to fulfill his promise of serving a greater good and improving the lives of those around him. He decided to open a cannabis business in Fall River, to pay homage both to the City that he loves, and to the miraculous products that helped him in his healing. The Corky Row District is one of the most notoriously distressed neighborhoods in the City. It was an easy decision for Pedro to make when deciding where to open this business. Creating a cannabis business would allow Pedro to give back to the community he loves, his HOME, by creating jobs, generating sales tax revenue, and making additional community specific contributions. Like anything else he does, Pedro has been working towards this at full speed, giving 110% of himself every step of the way. He is excited about the opportunity to implement his Positive Impact Plan with resources provided by his new business venture.
