South African coffin-maker saw COVID-19 at work and at home

By Cara Anna
The Associated Press

JOHANNESBURG — The coffin-maker knew death too well. The boxes were stacked in his echoing workshop like the prows of ships waiting for passengers. COVID-19 was turning his business upside down.

Then it moved into his home.

Casey Pillay's wife was a midwife, delivering babies for coronavirus-positive mothers in Johannesburg, the epicenter of the pandemic in South Africa — once fifth in the world in number of cases — and on the continent.

That she would be infected, they knew, was a matter of time.

When she fell ill during the country's surge in cases, she retreated to the main bedroom. Pillay withdrew to a bedroom next door. Scared, he barely slept, managing a few hours before dawn as his wife wrestled with some of the worst days of her life.

"I'd literally been eggshells listening to what she was going through," Pillay said Tuesday. "I would grieve every now and then, fully kitted up, just to check vitals, whether she needed oxygen. When she recovered, we sat down and had chat. She was really scared because at one stage she thought she was gonna die."

It was a blessing in disguise, he said, to see someone with COVID-19 recover after so much exposure to death through his work.

Pillay, a manager at the coffin-making business, said about 10 colleagues also were infected. All are now OK. Their survival reflects the relatively low death toll from COVID-19 in South Africa, and in Africa in general, as the continent appears to defy dire predictions that the virus would cause massive numbers of deaths.

Life has edged back toward normal after a surge in infections in South Africa in June and July that threatened to overwhelm public hospitals.

Many of the more than 1 million graves that Gauteng province, home of Johannesburg, once hurriedly mapped out have gone unused.

Still, the toll from COVID-19 — which has killed more than 16,000 people in South Africa, nearly half of the continent's over 35,000 deaths — has been painful, and the world surpassing a million confirmed deaths has again led to reflection.

"It has been a crazy, crazy, crazy couple of months," Pillay said.

Thereed for coffins rose and fell as South Africa's lockdown levels changed, but overall, he said, "business went on."

Under the strictest lockdown measures, so few people were driving in South Africa that the country's terrible rate of vehicle deaths plummeted. And alcohol sales were banned, "so you weren't having people fighting, murdering each other," Pillay said. "Unfortunately, our whole business thrives on people dying."

As the lockdown eased step by step and people were "not being disciplined" and going around without masks, the number of virus deaths increased. Now, a sense of normalcy is returning.

But COVID-19 changed everything. The price of basic materials shot up as "every Tom, Dick and Harry became an essential provider," Pillay said. Suddenly, a box of gloves was changing hands five times, with everyone taking a cut. What once cost 80 rand ($4.70) became 200 rand ($11.70) or 220 rand ($13).

Pillay scrambled to keep his workshop open and safe as he oversaw it. "The unfortunate part is, you've got so many workers and machines and can only do so much a day," he said. The workshop bustles with people carrying raw wood, sanding it and attaching polished handles.

And the entire nature of mourning in South Africa changed. The government said COVID-19 burials should happen right away instead of waiting for the usual weekend funerals.

"You had undertakers who now needed boxes on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday," Pillay said.

A body now had to fit into three body bags, then the coffin, and "go straight into the grave."

With the number of people limited at funerals and graveyards, "people went for the cheapest boxes," Pillay said. In normal times, even the poorest of the poor in South Africa "want to do the best, a kind of show-off thing, a bragging right for them" with quality coffins for their loved ones.

Now, there is little time to appreciate it, and few people to impress. Sometimes, mourners could only park on the side of the road and watch the vehicle carrying the body drive by.

Pillay believes that the beginning of the Southern Hemisphere's summer, along with South Africans' relative youth and the perceived resilience of immune systems, will help his countrymen survive the next wave of infections that health experts are expecting.

Again, it's when, not if. Pillay already is watching cases rise again in Britain, in Spain.

"Yes, it's imminent," he said. "Definitely."

HOW MEDICARE ADVANTAGE IS DIFFERENT

Medicare Part C is Medicare Advantage. Rather than add to the other parts of Medicare, however, Medicare Advantage plans replace them. Insurers that offer Medicare Advantage are required to provide all the benefits of Part A and Part B, and most plans include Part D drug coverage as well. In addition, the plans typically cover certain expenses that Medicare doesn't, such as hearing, vision and dental care.

Most Medicare Advantage enrollees in 2020 paid no additional premiums for their coverage, other than their regular Part B premiums, according to the Kaiser Family Foundation, a health research group.

HOW MEDICARE ADVANTAGE MANAGES COSTS

Medicare Advantage plans are similar to employer-provided group health insurance: To be covered, you typically must choose health care providers in the insurance company's network. The network may be relatively narrow if the plan is a health maintenance organization (HMO) or somewhat broader if it's a preferred provider organization (PPO). You may need preapproval for certain types of care or referrals to see specialists. If you go out of network, your costs may not be covered or may not apply to your out-of-pocket limits. Even if your doctor is "in network" now, that could change and you might not get much notice.

Also, Medicare Advantage plans are typically regional. If you move out of the area or travel to other states, you may not be covered.

The devil's in the details, and Medicare Advantage plans have many, many details. The average Medicare beneficiary has access to 28 Medicare Advantage options, with varying networks, coverage, deductibles, copays and co-insurance, according to the Kaiser Family Foundation. In general, though, Medicare Advantage costs less upfront and potentially more overall if you need lots of medical care. Many Medicare plans have higher upfront costs but cover most if not all of your expenses when you need care.

If you want to switch from one Medicare Advantage plan to another, you can do so during annual enrollment periods. But if you want to switch from Medicare Advantage to traditional Medicare, you often won't have guaranteed access to a Medicare policy. That means the insurer may charge you more, exclude preexisting conditions for a time or not issue you a policy at all.

That doesn't mean Medicare Advantage plans are a poor choice — just a complicated one, says Tatiana Fassieux, a training specialist with California Health Advocates, a Medicare advocacy nonprofit. She recommends people contact their state health insurance assistance program, which can provide free, unbiased one-on-one counseling. Links to these programs can be found by visiting the SHIP National Technical Assistance Center.

"People should not rely exclusively on television commercials," Fassieux warns. "That's when people get stuck and sometimes make the wrong decision."

Pope: Market capitalism has failed in pandemic, needs reform

By Nicole Winfield
The Associated Press

ROME — Pope Francis says the coronavirus pandemic has proven that the "magic theories" of market capitalism have failed and that the world needs a new type of politics that promotes dialogue and solidarity and rejects war at all costs.

Francis on Sunday laid out his vision for a post-COVID world by uniting the core elements of his social teachings into a new encyclical aimed at inspiring a revived sense of the human family. "Fratelli Tutti" (Brothers All) was released on the feast day of his namesake, the peace-loving St. Francis of Assisi.

The document draws its inspiration from the teachings of St. Francis and the pope's previous preaching on the injustices of the global economy and its destruction of the planet and pairs them with his call for greater human solidarity to confront the "dark clouds over a closed world."

In the encyclical, Francis rejected even the Catholic Church's own doctrine justifying war as a means of legitimate defense, saying it had been too broadly applied over the centuries and was no longer viable.

"It's very difficult nowadays to invoke the rational criteria elaborated in earlier centuries to speak of the possibility of a 'just war,'" Francis wrote in the most controversial new element of the encyclical.

Francis had started writing the encyclical, the third of his pontificate, before the coronavirus struck and its bleak diagnosis of a human family falling apart goes far beyond the problems posed by the outbreak. He said the pandemic, however, had confirmed his belief that current political and economic institutions must be reformed to address the legitimate needs of the people most harmed by the coronavirus.

"Aside from the differing ways that various countries responded to the crisis, their inability to work together became quite evident," Francis wrote. "Anyone who thinks that the only lesson to be learned was the need to improve what we were already doing, or to refine existing systems and regulations, is denying reality."

He cited the grave loss of millions of jobs as a result of the virus as evidence of the need for politicians to listen to popular movements, unions and marginalized groups and to craft more just social and economic policies.

"The fragility of world systems in the face of the pandemic has demonstrated that not everything can be resolved by market freedom," he wrote. "It is imperative to have a proactive economic policy directed at 'promoting an economy that favors productive diversity and business creativity' and makes it possible for jobs to be created, and not cut."

He denounced populist policies that seek to demonize and isolate, and called for a "culture of encounter" that promotes dialogue, solidarity and a sincere effort at working for the common good.

As an outgrowth of that, Francis rejected the concept of an absolute right to property for individuals, stressing instead the "social purpose" and common good that must come from sharing the Earth's resources. He repeated his criticism of the "perverse" global economic system, which he said consistently keeps the poor on the margins while enriching the few — an argument he made most fully in his 2015 landmark environmental encyclical "Laudato Si" (Praised Be).

Francis also rejected "trickle-down" economic theory as he did in the first major mission statement of his papacy, the 2013 Evangelii Gaudium, (The Joy of the Gospel), saying it simply doesn't achieve what it claims.

"Neo-liberalism simply reproduces itself by resorting to magic theories of 'spillover' or 'trickle' — without using the name — as the only solution to societal problems," he wrote. "There is little appreciation of the fact that the alleged 'spillover' does not resolve the inequality that gives rise to new forms of violence threatening the fabric of society."

Francis' English-language biographer, Austen Ivereigh, said with its two key predecessors, the new encyclical amounts to the final part of a triptych of papal teachings and may well be the last of the pontificate.

"There is little doubt that these three documents... will be considered the teaching backbone of the Francis era," Ivereigh wrote in Commonweal magazine.

Francis made clear the text had wide circulation, printing the encyclical in the Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano and distributing it free in St. Peter's Square on Sunday to mark the resumption of printed editions following a hiatus during the COVID-19 lockdown.

POSITIVE IMPACT PLAN

In an effort to promote and encourage full participation in the regulated cannabis industry by individuals from communities disproportionately harmed by marijuana prohibition and enforcement and to support one of the Commission's priorities of having an ongoing positive impact on communities, Noble Manna, Inc. ("Noble Manna" or "the Company") has created the following Positive Impact Plan.

Noble Manna's Positive Impact Plan is an effort to respond to evidence which demonstrates that certain populations have been disproportionately impacted by high rates of arrest and incarceration for marijuana and other drug crimes as a result of state and federal drug policy. Criminalization has had long-term ill effects, not only on the individuals arrested and incarcerated, but on their families and communities.

The Commission has identified certain Areas of Disproportionate Impact ("ADIs") that were disproportionately harmed in the past by marijuana prohibition and enforcement as evidenced by their having historically high rates of arrest, conviction and incarceration related to marijuana crimes. Our Positive Impact Plan is focused on the following groups:

1. Past or present residents of areas of disproportionate impact as defined by the Cannabis Control Commission ("CCC").
2. Massachusetts residents who have past drug convictions.
3. Massachusetts residents who have parents or spouses who have past drug convictions.

Noble Manna will implement the following goals, programs and measurements pursuant to this Positive Impact Plan.

Goal #1:

Provide financial support to New England Veterans Alliance ("NEVA") because it is an entity that offers support, education and/or job training to Massachusetts residents disproportionately impacted by the War on Drugs, including past or present residents of areas of disproportionate impact as defined by the CCC, Massachusetts residents who have past drug convictions, and/or Massachusetts residents who have parents or spouses who have past drug convictions.

Program:

Donate a total of $5,000.00 annually to New England Veterans Alliance. The donation to be made to New England Veterans Alliance is intended to enhance its ability to cultivate veterans through alternative therapeutic programs. NEVA does important work in New England and across the country to improve veterans' lives, and building community for veterans. NEVA offers support, education and/or job training to Massachusetts residents disproportionately impacted by the War on Drugs. Specifically, this donation will go towards two programming areas:

1. The Veterans Cultivation Program (VCP) which supports veterans in learning how to cultivate cannabis. The goal of VCP is to help educate the veteran community, to encourage self sustainability through cultivation therapy, and to alleviate the financial burden on veterans while providing a purpose and connection to the local communities and
2. Peer support groups for veterans across New England, specifically those veterans located in areas of disproportionate impact (ADI) and/or have had past drug convictions.

Measurement and Accountability:

At the end of each year, Noble Manna will conduct an analysis and create a report on the amounts and percentages of donations and other financial support that the Noble Manna has given to the program outlined above. Noble Manna will continue to assess the viability and impact of financial donations made, and annually review donation goals amounts. NEVA will be able to produce documentation that the individuals participating in their programs have had past drug convictions and are from an area of disproportionate impact.

NEVA will provide an annual report to Noble Manna, summarizing the use of the funds, as well as the disproportionately impacted communities the programs have worked with, and whether the individuals participating in the programs have had past drug convictions. NEVA will provide a copy to the Cannabis Control Commission upon request.

Goal #2:

On an annual basis, cover the costs/fees associated with obtaining an expungement of the criminal record for up to 5 individuals that are past or present residents of ADI's who have cannabis-related felonies.

Program:

Noble Manna will Commit $2,500 a year to our Cannabis Expungement Program ("CEP") that will provide financial assistance for legal/filing fees for up to 5 individuals from areas of disproportionate impact attempting to expunge cannabis criminal charges from their record. Noble Manna will identify an attorney to volunteer their time to help individuals with completing the necessary expungement paperwork.

Measurement and Accountability:

Noble Manna will use qualitative and quantitative measurement metrics in measuring the results of its program and upon renewal will demonstrate that the CEP led to measurable success of our goal. The metric to be used in determining whether the goals were met will be to produce the total number of individuals Noble Manna has assisted with funding expungements per year and indicate the specific ADI where that individual resides or has resided. In addition, Noble Manna will produce documentation that criminal records of individuals in the CEP have had their records expunged.

Noble Manna acknowledges and is aware, and will adhere to, the requirements set forth in 935 CMR 500.105(4) which provides the permitted and prohibited advertising, branding, marketing, and sponsorship practices of every Marijuana Establishment.

Any actions taken, or programs instituted by Noble Manna, will not violate the Commission's regulations with respect to limitations on ownership or control or other applicable state laws.

Noble Manna expressly understands that the progress or success of this plan will be required to be demonstrated upon each annual license renewal period in conformity with 935 CMR 500.101(1) and (2).

BY-LAWS OF NOBLE MANNA, INC.

ARTICLE I Stockholders

Section 1. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of stockholders shall be held on the third Thursday in September each year (or if that be a legal holiday in the place where the meeting is to be held, on the next succeeding full business day) at the hour fixed by the Directors or the President and stated in the notice of the meeting. The purposes for which the annual meeting is to be held, in addition to those prescribed by law, by the Articles of Organization, or by these By-laws, may be specified by the Directors or the president. If no annual meeting is held in accordance with the foregoing provisions a special meeting may be held in lieu thereof, and any action taken at such meeting shall have the same force and effect as if taken at the annual meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the President or by the Directors, and shall be called by the Clerk, or in case of the death, absence, incapacity or refusal of the Clerk, by any other officer, upon written application of one or more stockholders who are entitled to vote at the meeting and who hold at least one-tenth part interest of the capital stock entitled to vote at the meeting stating the time, place and purposes of the meeting. No call of a special meeting of the stockholders shall be required if such notice of the meeting shall have been waived in writing by every stockholder entitled to notice thereof, or by his attorney thereunto authorized.

Section 3. Place of Meeting.

All meetings of the stockholders shall be held at the principal office of the corporation in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, unless a different place within said state or, if permitted by the Articles of Organization, elsewhere within the United States is designated by the President, or by a majority of the Directors. Any adjourned session of any meeting of the stockholders shall be held at such place within said state, or, if permitted by the Articles of Organization, elsewhere within the United States as designated in the vote of adjournment.

Section 4. Notice of Meetings.

A written notice of the place, date and hour of all meetings of stockholders stating the purposes of the meeting shall be given at least seven (7) days before the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote thereat and to each stockholder who is otherwise entitled by law, the Articles of Organization, or by these By-laws to such notice, by leaving such notice with him or at his residence or usual place of business, or by mailing it, postage prepaid, and addressed to such stockholder at his address as it appears in the records of the corporation. Such notice shall be given by the Clerk, or in case of the death, absence, incapacity or refusal of the Clerk, by any other officer or by a person designated either by the Clerk, by the person or persons calling the meeting or by the Board of Directors. Whenever notice of a meeting is required to be given a stockholder under any provision of law, or the Articles of Organization, or of these By-laws, a written waiver thereof, executed before or after the meeting by such stockholder or his attorney thereunto authorized, and filed with the records of the meeting shall be deemed equivalent to such notice.

Section 5. Quorum.

At any meeting of the stockholders, a quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of a majority in interest of all stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting; except that if two or more classes or series of stock are entitled to vote on any matter as separate classes or series, then in the case of each such class or series a quorum for that matter shall consist of a majority in interest of all stock of that class or series issued and outstanding; and except when a larger quorum is required by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-laws. Stock owned directly or indirectly by the corporation, if any shall not be deemed outstanding for this purpose. Any meeting may be adjourned from time to time by a majority of the votes properly cast upon the question, whether or not a quorum is present and the meeting may be held as adjourned without further notice.

Section 6. Voting.

Each stockholder shall have one vote for each share of stock entitled to vote held by him of record according to the records of the corporation and a proportionate vote for a fractional share, unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Organization. The corporation shall not, directly or indirectly vote any share of its own stock.

Section 7. Action by Consent

Any action which is required to be or may be taken at any annual or special meeting of stockholders of the Corporation, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall have been signed by the holders of the outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or to take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted; provided, however, that prompt notice of the taking of the corporate action without a meeting and by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those stockholders who have not consented in writing.

Section 8. Proxies.

Stockholders entitled to vote may vote either in person or by written proxy dated not more than six months before the meeting named therein, which proxies shall be filed with the Clerk or other person responsible to record the proceedings of the meeting before being voted. Unless otherwise specifically limited by their terms, such proxies shall entitle the holders thereof to vote at any adjournment of such meeting but shall not be valid after the final adjournment of such meeting. A proxy with respect to stock held in the name of two or more persons shall be valid if executed by any one of them, unless at or prior to exercise of the proxy the corporation receives a specific written notice to the contrary from any one of them. A proxy purporting to be executed by or on behalf of a stockholder shall be deemed valid unless challenged at or prior to its exercise and the burden of proving invalidity shall rest on the challenger.

Section 9. Action at Meeting

When a quorum is present, the action of the stockholders on any matter properly brought before such meeting shall be decided by the holders of a majority of the stock present or represented and entitled to vote and voting on such matter, except where a different vote is required by law, the Articles of Organization or these by-laws. Any election by stockholders shall be determined by a plurality of the votes cast by the stockholders entitled to vote at the election. No ballot shall be required for such election unless requested by a stockholder present or represented at the meeting and entitled to vote in the election.

ARTICLE II Directors

Section 1. Powers.

The business of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors who shall have and may exercise all the powers of the corporation except as otherwise reserved to the stockholders by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-laws. In the event of a vacancy in the Board of Directors, the remaining Directors, except as otherwise provided by law, may exercise the powers of the full Board until the vacancy is filled.

Section 2. Enumeration and Election.

The Board of Directors shall consist of not less than one director. The stockholders shall have the power to determine the size of the Board of Directors without being subject to the requirements of G.L. c. 156D, Section 8.03. The stockholders shall select the size of the Board of Directors by majority vote of the issued shares. At the time of incorporation, the board shall consist of one director, and this number need not be increased based on the number of stockholders. The directors shall be chosen at the annual meeting of the stockholders by such stockholders as have the right to vote thereon. No director need be a stockholder and may exercise all or any of its powers.

Section 3. Vacancies.

Any vacancy at any time existing in the Board may be filled by the Board at any meeting. The stockholders having voting power may at a special meeting called at least in part for the purpose, choose a successor to a director whose office is vacant and the person so chosen shall displace any successor chosen by the directors.

Section 4. Enlargement of the Board.

The number of the Board of Directors may be increased and one or more additional directors elected at any special meeting of the stockholders, called at least in part for the purpose, or by the directors, by vote of a majority of the directors then in office.

Section 5. Tenure.

Except as otherwise provided by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-laws, directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders and thereafter until their successors are chosen and qualified. Any director may resign by delivering his written resignation to the corporation at its principal office or to the President or Clerk. Such resignation shall be effective upon receipt unless it is specified to be effective at some other time or upon the happening of some other event.

Section 6. Regular Meetings.

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at such times and places within or without the Commonwealth of Massachusetts as the Board of Directors may fix from time to time, and, when so fixed, no notice thereof need be given, provided that any Director who is absent when such times and places are fixed shall be given notice of the fixing of such time and places. The first meeting of the Board of Directors following the annual meeting of the stockholders may be held without notice immediately after and at the same place as the annual meeting of the stockholders or the special meeting held in lieu thereof. If in any year a meeting of the Board of Directors is not held at such time and place, any action to be taken may be taken at any later meeting of the Board of Directors with the same force and effect as if held or transacted at such meeting.

Section 7. Special Meetings.

Special meetings of the Directors may be held at any time and at any place designated in the call of the meeting when called by the President or the Treasurer or by one or more Directors, reasonable notice thereof being given to each Director by the Clerk, or by the officer or the Director or one of the Directors calling the meeting.

Section 8. Notice.

It shall be reasonable and sufficient notice to a Director to send notice by mail at least forty-eight hours or by email at least twenty-four hours before the meeting addressed to him at his usual or last known business or residence address or to give notice to him in person or by telephone at least twenty-four hours before the meeting. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any Director if a written waiver of notice, executed by him before or after the meeting, is filed with the records of the meeting or to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting prior thereto or at its commencement the lack of notice to him. A notice or a waiver of notice not need specify the purposes of the meeting.

Section 9. Quorum.

At any meeting of the Directors a quorum for any election or for the consideration of any question shall consist of a majority of the Directors then in office. Whether or not a quorum is present any meeting may be adjourned from time to time by a majority of the votes properly cast upon the question, and the meeting may be held as adjourned without further notice. When a quorum is present at any meeting the votes of a majority of the Directors present shall be requisite and sufficient for election to any office and shall decide any question brought before such meeting except in any case where a larger vote is required by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws.

Section 10. Action by Consent.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Directors may be taken without a meeting if all the Directors consent to the action in writing and the written consents are filed with the records of the meetings of the Directors. Such consent shall be treated for all purposes as a vote of the Directors at a meeting.

Any action which is required to be or may be taken at any annual or special meeting of directors of the Corporation, may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote if consents in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall have been signed by not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or to stake such action at a meeting at which all directors were present and votes; provided however, that prompt notice of the taking of corporation action without a meeting and by less than unanimous written consent shall be given to those directors who have not consented in writing.

Section 11. Committees.

The Board of Directors, by vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, may elect from its membership an Executive Committee or other committees and may delegate thereof some or all of its powers except those which by law, by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws, they are prohibited from delegating. Except as the Board of Directors may otherwise determine, any such committee may make rules for the conduct of its business, but unless otherwise provided by the Board of Directors or in such rules, its business shall be conducted so far as possible in the same manner as is provided by these By-Laws for the Board of Directors. All members of such committees shall hold such offices at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may abolish any such committee at any time. Any committee to which the Board of Directors delegates any of its powers or duties shall keep records of its meetings and shall upon request report its action to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall have power to rescind any action of any committee, but no such rescission shall have retroactive effect.

ARTICLE III Officers and Agents

Section 1. Enumeration; Qualification.

The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Treasurer, a Clerk, and such other officers, if any as the incorporators at their initial meeting, or the Directors from time to time, may in their discretion elect or appoint. The corporation may also have such agents, if any, as the incorporators at their initial meeting or the Directors from time to time may in their discretion appoint. Any officer may be but none need be a Director or stockholder. The Clerk shall be a resident of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts unless the corporation has a resident agent appointed for the purpose of service of process. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person. Any officer may be required by the Directors to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties to the corporation in such amount and with such sureties as the Directors may determine. The premiums for such bonds may be paid by the corporation.

Section 2. Powers.

Subject to law, to the Articles of Organization and to the other provisions of these By-Laws, each officer shall have, in addition to the duties and powers herein set forth, such duties and powers as are commonly incident to his office and such duties and powers as the Directors may from time to time designate.

Section 3. Tenure.

Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Organization or by these By-Laws, the President, Vice President, Treasurer and Clerk shall hold office until the first meeting of the Directors following the next annual meeting of the stockholders and until their respective successors are chosen and qualified, and each other officer shall hold office until the first meeting of the Directors following the next annual meeting of the stockholders and until their respective successors are chosen and qualified, unless a different period shall have been specified by the terms of his election or appointment, or in each case until he sooner dies, resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified. Each agent shall retain his authority at the pleasure of the Directors.

Section 4. Election.

The President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Clerk shall be elected annually by the Directors at their first meeting following the annual meeting of stockholders, or the special meeting held in lieu thereof. Other officers may be chosen by the Directors at such meeting or at any other meeting.

Section 5. President.

The President, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the stockholders and of the Directors. ARTICLE IV Resignations, Removals and Vacancies

Section 1. Resignations.

Any directors or officer may resign at any time by delivering his resignation in writing to the President or the Clerk or to a meeting of the Directors. Such resignation shall take effect at such time as is specified therein, or if no such time is so specified then upon delivery thereof.

Section 2. Removals.

Directors, including Directors elected by the Directors to fill vacancies in the Board may be removed with or without assignment of cause by vote of the holders of the majority of the shares entitled to vote in the election of Directors, provided that the Directors of a class elected by a particular class of stockholders may be removed only by the vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the particular class of stockholders entitled to vote for the election of such Directors.

The Directors may by vote of a majority of the Directors then in office remove any Director for cause. The Directors may remove any officer from office with or without assignment of cause by vote of a majority of the Directors then in office. If cause is assigned for removal of any Director or officer, such Director or officer may be removed only after a reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard before the body proposing to remove him. The Directors may terminate or modify the authority of any agent or employee.

Except as the Directors may otherwise determine, no Director or officer who resigns or is removed shall have any right to any compensation as such Director or officer for any period following his resignation or removal, or any right to damages on account of such removal whether his compensation be by the month or by the year or otherwise, provided, however, that the foregoing provision shall not prevent such Director or officer from obtaining damages for breach of any contract of employment legally binding upon the corporation.

Section 3. Vacancies.

Any vacancy in the Board of Directors, including a vacancy resulting from an enlargement of the Board, may be filled by vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, or, in the absence of such election by the Directors, by the stockholders at a meeting called for the purpose; provided, however, that any vacancy resulting from action by the stockholders may be filled by the stockholders at the same meeting at which such action was taken by them.

If the office of any officer becomes vacant, the Directors may elect or appoint a successor by the vote of a majority of the Directors present at the meeting at which such election or appointment is made.

Each such successor shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor and until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified, or until he sooner dies, resigns, is removed or becomes disqualified.

ARTICLE V

Indemnification of Directors and Others

The corporation shall, to the extent legally permissible, indemnify any person serving or who has served as a Director or officer of the corporation, or at its request as a Director, Trustee, Officer, Employee or other Agent of any organization in which the corporation owns shares or of which it is a creditor against all liabilities and expenses, including amounts paid in satisfaction of judgments, in compromise or as fines and penalties, and counsel fees, reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or disposition of any action, suit or other proceeding, whether civil or criminal, in which he may be involved or with which he may be threatened, while serving or thereafter, by reason of his being or having been such a Director, Officer, Trustee, Employee or Agent, except with respect to any matter as to which he shall have been adjudicated in any proceeding not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that his action was in the best interests of the corporation; provided, however, that as to any matter disposed of by a compromise payment by such Director, Officer, Trustee, Employee or Agent, pursuant to a consent decree or otherwise, no indemnification either for said payment or for any other expenses shall be provided unless:

(a) such compromise shall be approved as in the best interests of the corporation after notice that it involves such indemnification:

(i) by a disinterested majority of the directors then in office; or

(ii) by the holders of a majority of the outstanding stock at the time entitled to vote for Directors, voting as a single class, exclusive of any stock owned by any interested Director or officer; or

(b) in the absence of action by disinterested directors or stockholders, there has been obtained at the request of a majority of the Directors then in office an opinion in writing of independent legal counsel to the effect that such Director or officer appears to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that his action was in the best interests of the corporation.

Expenses including counsel fees, reasonably incurred by any such Director, Officer, Trustee, Employee or Agent in connection with the defense or disposition of any such action, suit or other proceeding may be paid from time to time by the corporation in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by such individual to repay the amounts so paid to the corporation if it is ultimately determined that indemnification for such expenses is not authorized under this section. The right of indemnification hereby provided shall not be exclusive of or affect any other rights to which any such Director, Officer, Trustee, Employee or Agent may be entitled. Nothing contained in this Article shall affect any rights to indemnification to which corporate personnel other than such Directors, Officers, Trustees, Employees or Agents may be entitled by contract or otherwise under law. As used in this Article, the terms "Director", "Officer", "Trustee", "Employee" and "Agent" include their respective heirs, executors and administrators, and an "interested" Director, Officer, Trustee, Employee or Agent is one against whom in such capacity the proceedings in question or other proceedings on the same or similar grounds is then pending.

ARTICLE VI

Provision Relating to Capital Stock

Section 1. Certificates of Stock.

Each stockholder shall be entitled to a certificate or certificates representing in the aggregate the shares owned by him and certifying the number and class thereof, which shall be in such form as the Directors shall adopt. Each certificate of stock shall be signed by the President or a Vice-President and by the Treasurer or an Assistant Treasurer, but when a certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or a registrar, other than a Director, officer or employee of the corporation, such signatures may be facsimile signature in case of any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on such certificate shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer at the time of its issue. Every certificate for shares of stock which are subject to any restriction on transfer pursuant to the Articles of Organization, the By-Laws, or any agreement to which the corporation is a party shall have the restriction noted conspicuously on the certificate and shall also set forth on the face or back either the full text of the restriction or a statement of the existence of such restriction and a statement that the corporation will furnish a copy of the holder of such certificate upon written request and without charge. Every certificate issued when the corporation is authorized to issue more than one class or series of stock shall set forth on its face or back either the full text of the preferences, powers, qualifications and rights or a statement that the corporation will furnish a copy thereof to the holder of such certificate upon written request and without charge.

Section 2. Equitable Interests Not Recognized.

The corporation shall be entitled to treat the holder of record of any share or shares of stock as the holder in fact thereof, and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in such share or shares on the part of any other person except as may be otherwise expressly provided by law. It shall be the duty of each shareholder to notify the corporation of his post office address.

Section 3. Issue of Authorized Unissued Capital Stock.

Any unissued capital stock from time to time authorized under the Articles of Organization may be issued by vote of the Directors. No such stock shall be issued unless the cash, so far as due, or the property services or expenses for which it was authorized to be issued, has been actually received or incurred by or conveyed or rendered to, the corporation, or is in its possession as surplus.

Section 4. Transfers.

Subject to the restriction, if any imposed by the Articles of Organization, these By-Laws, or any agreement to which the corporation is a party, shares of stock shall be transferred on the books of the corporation only by the surrender to the corporation or its transfer agent of the certificate representing such shares properly endorsed or accompanied by a written assignment of such shares or by a written power of attorney to sell, assign, or transfer stamps affixed, and with such proof that the endorsement, assignment or power of attorney is genuine and effective as the corporation or its transfer agent may reasonably require.

Section 5. Lost, Mutilated, or Destroyed Certificates.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Board of Directors may determine the conditions upon which a new certificate of stock may be issued in place of any certificate alleged to have been lost, mutilated or destroyed. It may in its discretion require the owner of a lost, mutilated or destroyed certificate, or his legal representative, to give a bond, sufficient in its opinion, with or without surety to indemnify the corporation against any loss or claim which may arise by reason of the issue of a certificate in place of such lost, mutilated or destroyed stock certificate.

Section 6. Transfer Agent and Registrar.

The Board of Directors may appoint a transfer agent or a registrar or both for its capital stock or any class or series thereof and require all certificates for such stock to bear the signature or facsimile thereof of any such transfer agent or registrar.

Section 7. Setting Record Date and Closing Transfer Records.

The Board of Directors may fix in advance a time not more than sixty (60) days before (a) the date of any meeting of the stockholders or (b) the date for the payment of any dividend or the making of any distribution to stockholders or (c) the last day on which the consent or dissent of stockholders may be effectively expressed for any purpose, as the record date for determining the stockholders having the right to notice and to vote at such meeting or the right to receive such dividend or distribution, or the right to give such consent or dissent. If a record date is set, only stockholders of record on the date shall have such right notwithstanding any transfer of stock on the records of the corporation after the record date. Without fixing such record date, the Board of Directors may close the transfer records of the corporation for all or any part of such sixty-day period.

If no record date is fixed and the transfer books are not closed, then the record date for determining stockholders having the right to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the next day preceding the day on which notice is given, and the record date for determining stockholders for any other purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors acts with respect thereto.

ARTICLE VII Inspection of Records

Said copies and records need not all be kept in the same office. They shall be available at all reasonable times to the inspection of any stockholder for any proper purpose, but not to secure a list of stockholders for the purpose of selling said list or copies thereof or of using the same for a purpose other than in the interest of the applicant, as a stockholder, relative to the affairs of the corporation.

ARTICLE VIII Execution of Papers

All deeds, leases, transfers, contracts, bonds, notes, releases, checks, drafts, and other obligations authorized to be executed on behalf of the corporation shall be signed by the President or the Treasurer except as the Directors may generally or in particular cases otherwise determine.

Checks, notes, drafts and other instruments for the payment of money drawn or endorsed in the name of the corporation may be signed by any officer or officers or person or persons authorized by the Directors to sign the same. No officer or persons shall sign any such instrument as aforesaid unless authorized by the Directors to do so.

ARTICLE XI

ARTICLE XIV

These By-Laws may be amended or repealed in whole or in part by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of each class of the capital stock at the time outstanding and entitled to vote at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders, provided that notice of the substance of the proposed amendment is stated in the notice of such meeting. If authorized by the Articles of Organization, the Directors may make, amend or repeal the By-Laws, in whole or in part, except with respect to any provision thereof which by law, the Articles of Organization or the By-Laws requires action by the stockholders. Not later than the time of giving notice of the meeting of stockholders next following the making, amending or repealing by the Directors of any By-Law, notice thereof stating the substance of such change shall be given to all stockholders entitled to vote on amending the By-Laws. No change in the date fixed in these By-Laws for the annual meeting of stockholders may be made within sixty (60) days before the date fixed in these By-Laws and in case of any change in such date, notice thereof shall be given to each stockholder in person or by letter mailed to his last known post office address at least twenty days before the new date fixed for such meeting. Market Analysis

National Market

Since the 1960's the public's support for legalizing marijuana has steadily inclined. In 1969, only 12% of Americans were in favor of a regulated market; by the year 2000, that number rose to 31%. As of 2020, nearly 66% of American voters, including 74% of millennials, support a legalized and regulated market.

Though marijuana is still illegal at the Federal level, states have been given the autonomy to implement governing laws of their own. As of today, eleven (11) states and the District of Columbia have legalized recreational marijuana, and 33 states, in addition to the District of Columbia have legalized marijuana for medicinal purposes.

Massachusetts Market

On November 8, 2016, Massachusetts' voters approved Question 4, the ballot initiative that would end marijuana prohibition for recreational adult-use. Cannabis sales began on November 20, 2018. Within the first week, recreational marijuana sales reached $2.2 million.

After just six (6) full months of operations, aggregate marijuana sales within the state approached $140 million. By the end of 2019, Massachusetts generated more $420 million in recreational marijuana sales.

Goal One: Achieve at least 35% of our staffing needs from minorities.

Programs to Achieve Diversity Goal One:

- Provide on-site interactive workshops, annually (at minimum), covering such topics as the prevention of sexual harassment, racial and cultural diversity, and methods of fostering an inclusive work atmosphere.
- Increase diversity of the make-up of our staff by actively seeking out minorities, both through in-house hiring initiatives and participation in online diversity job boards and in-person job fairs at least once a year and as frequently as needed as staffing needs dictate.
- Establish clearly written policies regarding diversity and a zero-tolerance policy for discrimination and/or sexual harassment, which shall be incorporated into our employee handbook.

Measurements:

- Qualitative Metrics: Perform annual evaluation of inclusion/diversity initiatives to ensure diversity is one of Noble Manna’s strengths and remains a primary focus. This may include anonymous employee surveys or other private submission opportunities so that we can attempt to avoid any sort of reluctance for our employees to inform management how we are truly doing in pursuit of our diversity plan goals. The results of the surveys shall be compared to prior years’ results to allow Noble Manna to adjust our programs in the event that our goals are not being achieved.
- Quantitative Metrics: We will strive to achieve at least 35% of our staffing needs from minorities. The personnel files shall be evaluated on a semi-annual basis to determine how many employees are women and minorities that occupy positions within the company and that number shall be divided by Noble Manna’s total staffing at its Mendon facility to determine the percentage achieved.

Noble Manna Inc.

Is our goal objectively reasonable?

Noble Manna's goal of hiring minorities to comprise 35% of our staffing needs at our location in Mendon is objectively reasonable because of the facts (the demographics listed in the paragraph above) and our ability to advertise job positions quarterly in several of the following publications: Professional Diversity Network, Diversity Jobs, Beyond.com.
