COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

WORCESTER COUNTY

CANNABIS CONTROL COMMISSION

IN THE MATTER OF

Lifted Luxury, Inc.

License Nos. MR283558, MP281939, and MC283014

CCC-HO-24-0004

RECOMMENDED DECISION

Summary of Decision

This matter involves a September 11, 2023 Order to Show Cause issued to Lifted Luxury, Inc. (“Lifted Luxury” or “Respondent”), an adult-use Marijuana Retailer, Marijuana Product Manufacturer, and Marijuana Cultivator holding three provisional licenses. In the Order to Show Cause, which was issued pursuant to 935 CMR 500.370, the Cannabis Control Commission (“Commission”), acting through its Executive Director, ordered Lifted Luxury to show cause why its licenses should not be suspended because its majority owner had been determined unsuitable to serve as a Person Having Direct Control of Respondent. In addition, the Order to Show Cause ordered the suspension of agent registrations affiliated with Lifted Luxury. Lifted Luxury timely filed a request for a hearing on October 3, 2023. The licenses at issue expired on March 10, 2024, and the agent registrations expired on February 3, 2022.

I recommend that the Commission dismiss with prejudice Lifted Luxury’s request for a hearing pursuant to 801 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2) for failure to prosecute. Lifted Luxury has evinced an intent not to pursue the hearing process and has not responded to multiple communications from me. I further recommend that the Commission declare in its Final Decision that had the licenses not expired, it would have had grounds to suspend them in this action until May 17, 2027. Finally, I recommend that the Commission take no action with respect to the agent registrations because they had expired before the September 11, 2023 Order to Show Cause was issued.

Authority and Jurisdiction

Pursuant to M.G.L. c. 94G, § 4(a)(xxiv) and (g), the Commission may conduct adjudicatory proceedings in accordance with M.G.L. c. 30A and the standard rules of adjudicatory procedure established pursuant to section nine of M.G.L. c. 30A. Commission regulations provide that a Licensee shall be afforded a hearing on any adverse action taken pursuant to 935 CMR 500.370 and that the Commissions shall designate a Hearing Officer or delegate this designation to the Executive Director. 935 CMR 500.500(2)(b) and (5). The Hearing Officer will make a recommended decision to the Commission. 935 CMR 500.500(11).

Procedural History

The procedural history in this matter is summarized below.

September 11, 2023 Order to Show Cause – Notice of Violations

On September 11, 2023, the Commission served an Order to Show Cause – Notice of Violations (“Order” or “the September 11, 2023 Order”) on Lifted Luxury, by email to Cassandra Heneault (“Heneault”). According to the Order, Lifted Luxury was an adult-use Licensee with three provisional licenses (MC283014, MP281939, and MR283558) located in Millville, MA. The Commission ordered Lifted Luxury “to show cause as to why its licenses should not be suspended on account of Respondent’s majority owner, Cassandra Heneault (‘Heneault’), having been determined unsuitable to serve as a Person Having Direct Control of Respondent.”

Heneault’s alleged unsuitability stemmed from business dealings in Rhode Island. According to the Order, Heneault’s marijuana cultivator license for Heneault and Co., LLC, a Rhode Island micro medical marijuana facility licensee of which Heneault was the sole owner, was revoked by the Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation on May 17, 2022 due to its failure to establish new premises, after having been evicted by the City of Providence from its prior location.

The Order stated that the revocation of Heneault’s marijuana license in an Other Jurisdiction (i.e., Rhode Island) constituted adequate grounds to suspend Respondent’s Marijuana Establishment Licenses in Massachusetts under 935 CMR 500.450(11). The Commission, acting through its Executive Director, ordered: (1) the suspension of License nos. MR283558, MP281939, and MC283014 until May 17, 2027; and (2) the immediate suspension of the following agent registrations associated with Respondent’s provisional licenses: AR302232 (Cassandra D. Heneault), AR302233 (Cassandra D. Heneault), and AR302111 (Cassandra D. Heneault).

The Order stated that it would take effect on September 9, 2023 at 12:00 AM, which it deemed “the Effective Date.”¹ The Order informed the Respondent that it could request a hearing no later than thirty (30) calendar days of the Effective Date of the Order by making such a request to the Commission by email. The Order provided that any hearing would be subject to the Formal Rules of Practice and Procedure, 801 CMR 1.01.

Request for Hearing and March 12, 2025 Pre-hearing Conference

Heneault timely emailed a hearing request form to the Commission on October 3, 2023. On February 23, 2025, I sent an Acknowledgement of Filing and Notice of Pre-hearing Conference to Heneault and to the Commission's Enforcement Counsel. The Notice of Pre-hearing Conference informed the parties that a pre-hearing conference would be held on Teams on March 12, 2025 at 11:00 a.m. I also attached a blank Notice of Appearance form to my February 13, 2025 email and directed Heneault to return it to me by February 27, 2025.² I did not receive any communication from Heneault by February 27, 2025.

On March 12, 2025 at 9:44 a.m., I sent the parties, including Heneault, an email containing the Teams link for the 11:00 a.m. pre-hearing conference. At 10:57 a.m. on March 12, 2025, I received an email from Heneault stating:

Good morning. I have no interest in attending. Hence the nonresponse by the February deadline. This project was over for us when you sent the original notice. And the delay in responding which your office took over 17 months to respond to is pretty unacceptable. It is not feasible for a small business to pay rent and fees just to lose the license. We cut our losses a long time ago.

Thank you,

Cassy

Order to Show Cause-Failure to Prosecute

On April 1, 2025, I issued an Order to Show Cause-Failure to Prosecute to Lifted Luxury pursuant to 801 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2) by email to Heneault. The Order to Show Cause-Failure to Prosecute ordered Lifted Luxury to show cause why its claim for an adjudicatory hearing (i.e., its hearing request) concerning the Commission's September 11, 2023 Order should not be dismissed for failure to prosecute. I notified Lifted Luxury that if it did not respond to the Order to Show Cause within ten days, its claim could be dismissed with or without prejudice, and I could recommend that the Commission finalize the discipline ordered in the September 11, 2023 Order (i.e., suspension of Lifted Luxury's licenses and the related agent registrations). Lifted Luxury never responded to my April 1, 2025 Order to Show Cause-Failure to Prosecute.

May 6, 2025 Pre-Hearing Conference

On April 23, 2025, I issued to the Commission and Lifted Luxury (by email to Heneault) a Notice of a Pre-Hearing conference to be held on Teams on May 6, 2025. I stated that although Lifted Luxury had not responded to the Order to Show Cause – Failure to Prosecute, it was expressly advised that it could participate in the May 6, 2025 pre-hearing conference. The Notice stated that the following issues would be addressed:

² Under the Formal Rules of the Standard Adjudicatory Rules of Practice and Procedure, an Authorized Representative of a party to a proceeding must file a Notice of Appearance. 801 CMR 1.01(3)(b).

- (1) Whether, if the allegations in the September 11, 2023 Order were to be accepted as true because Lifted Luxury waived its right to a hearing, an evidentiary hearing would be needed concerning the appropriateness of the disciplinary action(s) set forth in the Order.
- (2) A potential order and briefing schedule for the parties on the following issues:
 - a. The date on which the suspension of Lifted Luxury's licenses would be effective under the September 11, 2023 Order.
 - b. The Commission's authority to order the immediate suspension of agent registrations associated with Lifted Luxury's provisional licenses through the September 11, 2023 Order issued to Lifted Luxury.

Commission Enforcement Counsel Timothy Goodin, Esq. appeared at the May 6, 2025 pre-hearing conference; neither Heneault nor anyone else from Lifted Luxury appeared. At the pre-hearing conference, I asked Attorney Goodin whether, if I assumed the facts in the September 11, 2023 Order to be true, the Commission believed an evidentiary hearing would need to be held concerning the appropriateness of the disciplinary action(s) set forth in the Order. Attorney Goodin responded that he did not believe that an evidentiary hearing would be necessary.

May 7, 2025 Order Requesting Information and Briefing

As a follow-up to the May 6, 2025 pre-hearing conference, I issued an Order on May 7, 2025 to the Commission and Lifted Luxury seeking certain information about the relief sought by the Commission and briefing on discrete legal issues. Specifically, I requested that the Commission provide the date(s) on which it sought, through its September 11, 2023 Order, to have the suspensions of Lifted Luxury's licenses and associated agent registrations be effective. I also requested briefing from the parties (i.e., the Commission and Lifted Luxury) on the following legal issues:

- (1) The Commission's authority to suspend an agent Registration Card through an Order to Show Cause issued to a Licensee pursuant to 935 CMR 500.370 and that seeks to suspend a License of a Marijuana Establishment to which the Registration Card is attached, as opposed to an Order to Show Cause issued to the Registrant.
- (2) The Commission's authority to order the immediate suspension of Agent Registration Cards in the context of an Order to Show Cause issued pursuant to 935 CMR 500.370, as opposed to a Summary Suspension Order pursuant to 935 CMR 500.350, and in the absence of allegations that the Registrant posed an immediate or serious threat to the public health, safety, or welfare.

I directed that the requested information and briefs be submitted to me no later than Friday, May 30, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. and that reply briefs be submitted to me no later than Friday, June 6, 2025 at 5:00 p.m.

The Commission's May 30, 2025 Submission and My June 25, 2025 Notice and Order

The Commission submitted information and briefing to me on May 30, 2025; Lifted Luxury did not make any submissions. In addition to responding to the specific questions in my May 7, 2025 Order, the Commission included enclosures with their response and introduced two new facts: that the Lifted Luxury licenses at issue expired on March 10, 2024 and that at the time the Commission issued the September 11, 2023 Order, there were no active agent registrations affiliated with the Lifted Luxury licenses.

Because the Commission submitted enclosures and introduced new facts in its May 30, 2025 submission, I issued a Notice and Order on June 25, 2025 informing the parties that unless I received an objection from either party by 5:00 p.m. on July 7, 2025, I intended to decide the matter upon the written submissions to date, including the Commission's May 30, 2025 response, pursuant to 801 CMR 1.01(10)(c), and to admit the enclosures in the Commission's May 30, 2025 as evidence. I did not receive objections from either party.

Findings of Fact

Since I did not receive any objections to my June 25, 2025 Notice and Order, I am deciding this matter based on the parties' written submissions pursuant to 801 CMR 1.01(10)(c) and am admitting into evidence and marking as exhibits the following documents from the Commission's May 30, 2025 submission:

Exhibit A: Commission Response to Hearing Officer Questions and Request for Briefing

Exhibit B: Lifted Luxury, Inc. License Record (MC283014)

Exhibit C: Lifted Luxury, Inc. License Record (MP281939)

Exhibit D: Lifted Luxury, Inc. License Record (MR283558)

Exhibit E: Cassandra Heneault Agent Registration Record (AR302111)

Exhibit F: Cassandra Heneault Agent Registration Record (AR302232)

Exhibit G: Cassandra Heneault Agent Registration Record (AR302233)

In addition, as explained in the next section, I am considering Lifted Luxury to have defaulted pursuant to 935 CMR 500.500(6) and am therefore assuming the facts alleged by the Commission in its September 11, 2023 Order to be true.

Against this background, I make the following findings of fact:

- (1) Lifted Luxury, Inc. ("Respondent") was an adult-use Licensee that had three provisional licenses (MC283014, MP281939, and MR283558) as of the date of the September 11, 2023 Order. Order, ¶ 8.

- (2) According to the Massachusetts Cannabis Industry Portal (“MassCIP”), Respondent’s license applications listed two individuals as Persons Having Direct or Indirect Authority: Heneault and Jasmine Salmanian (“Ms. Salmanian”). Heneault is the majority shareholder with 70% ownership and control interest in the licenses and Ms. Salmanian is a minority shareholder with 30% ownership and control interest. Order, ¶ 9.
- (3) Heneault was the sole owner of Heneault and Co. LLC, a micro medical marijuana facility licensee regulated by the Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation’s Office of Cannabis Registration (“RI DBR”). Order, ¶ 10.
- (4) On February 9, 2023, the Respondent submitted three renewal applications for its provisional licenses to the Commission: Cultivation Renewal Application; Product Manufacturer Renewal Application; Retailer Renewal Application (together, “Renewal Applications”). Order, ¶ 11.
- (5) In the Renewal Applications, the Respondent informed the Commission that in 2022, Heneault was not granted renewal of her Rhode Island cultivator license, Heneault & Co. lost their lease and needed to relocate. Order, ¶ 12.
- (6) According to a decision issued by the RI DBR, on or around June 8, 2021, Heneault informed the RI DBR that Heneault & Co.’s proposed cultivation facility had been foreclosed upon for non-payment of taxes or fees owed to the City of Providence. The City of Providence, as new owner of the facility, initiated eviction proceedings against Heneault & Co. Order, ¶ 13.
- (7) Heneault & Co. submitted a variance request to RI DBR which was partially granted on a temporary basis. RI DBR required Heneault & Co. to submit a renewal application by July 11, 2021 and demonstrate that it had a proposed cultivation facility location in place, in compliance with RI DBR’s regulations. Order, ¶ 14.
- (8) Heneault & Co.’s business renewal application on July 11, 2021 did not include information regarding a new location for the license as required by the RI DBR. Following a show cause hearing, the RI DBR denied the business’ renewal application and recommended “its License is considered null and void so is revoked.” Order, ¶ 15.
- (9) Rhode Island revoked Heneault and Co.’s license on May 17, 2022 due to failure to establish new premises. Order, ¶ 16.
- (10) On February 21, 2023, the Licensing Team within the Commission’s Investigations and Enforcement department referred the matter for suitability review, citing 935 CMR 500.801: Table A, Row 14. Order, ¶ 17.

- (11) After conducting suitability review, the Commission sent a Notice of Adverse Suitability Determination to both Respondent and Heneault on April 28, 2023. Order, ¶ 18.
- (12) The notice informed Heneault that she had been determined unsuitable to serve as a Person Having Direct Control of Respondent because, through Heneault & Co., she previously held a license that was revoked and had a renewal application denied by RI DBR. The notice further informed Respondent that it had been determined unsuitable by virtue of Heneault being disqualified from being a Person Having Direct Control of a Marijuana Establishment. Order, ¶ 19.
- (13) On March 9, 2023, the Commission renewed all of Respondent’s provisional licenses pursuant to G.L. c. 94G, § 6(b) and 935 CMR 500.103(4). Order, ¶ 20.
- (14) Respondent’s provisional licenses (MC283014, MP281939, and MR283558) were not renewed and expired on March 10, 2024. (Ex. A at 3; Ex. B at 1; Ex. C at 1; and Ex. D at 1.)
- (15) Heneault’s Agent Registrations for which the September 11, 2023 Order ordered the immediate suspension (AR302232, AR302233, and AR302111) expired on February 3, 2022. (Ex. A at 2; Ex. E at 1; Ex. F at 1; Ex. G at 1.)

Analysis and Recommendations

There are two issues before me:

- (1) Whether Lifted Luxury’s request for a hearing should be dismissed for failure to prosecute under 801 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2); and
- (2) If Lifted Luxury’s request for a hearing should be dismissed for failure to prosecute under 801 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2), and the allegations set forth in the September 11, 2023 Order are assumed to be true, what discipline should be recommended to the Commission.

Each of these issues, and the legal frameworks guiding them, are discussed below.

1. Dismissal for Failure to Prosecute

Commission regulations state that a Licensee shall be entitled to a hearing under 935 CMR 500.500 on adverse actions taken under 935 CMR 500.370, which is the regulation cited in the September 11, 2023 Order. 935 CMR 500.500(2)(b). The regulations also state in relevant part that hearings conducted under 935 CMR 500.500 shall be conducted pursuant to the Standard Rules of Adjudicatory Rules of Practice and Procedure, which includes 801 CMR 1.01: Formal Rules (“Formal Rules”) and 801 CMR 1.02: Informal/Fair Hearing Rules (“Informal Rules”). 935 CMR 500.500(9)(c). The September 11, 2023 Order specified that any hearing would be subject to the Formal Rules under 801 CMR 1.01.

The Formal Rules provide that when the record indicates that a party does not intend to continue with the prosecution of a claim, the Presiding Officer (i.e., the hearing officer) may initiate an order requiring the party to show cause why the claim should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution. 801 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2). The Formal Rules state that if a party fails to respond to such order within ten days, or a party's response fails to establish such case, the Presiding Officer may dismiss the claim with or without prejudice. Id.

Here, I issued the April 1, 2025 Order to Show Cause – Failure to Prosecute because Heneault's March 12, 2025 email evinced an intent on behalf of Lifted Luxury not to continue with the adjudicatory hearing process. In the April 1, 2025 Order to Show Cause – Failure to Prosecute, I notified Lifted Luxury that if it did not respond to the April 1, 2025 Order within ten days, its claim for an adjudicatory hearing could be dismissed with or without prejudice, and I could recommend that the Commission finalize the discipline in the September 11, 2023 Order.

I did not receive any response from Heneault or any other representative of Lifted Luxury by April 11, 2025 (i.e., ten days after the April 1, 2025 Order) or any time thereafter. I included Heneault in all subsequent communications with the parties, including the Notice of the May 6, 2025 Pre-Hearing Conference, the May 7, 2025 Order requesting information and briefing, and the June 25, 2025 Notice and Order, but I did not receive any response. There is no reason to believe that Heneault did not receive the April 1, 2025 Order to Show Cause – Failure to Prosecute or my subsequent communications because they were sent to the same email address from which Heneault sent the March 12, 2025 email.

Recommended Decision

I recommend that the Commission dismiss Lifted Luxury's October 3, 2023 claim for an adjudicatory hearing (i.e., its hearing request) on the September 11, 2023 Order with prejudice for failure to prosecute under 801 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2). I make this recommendation because Heneault's March 12, 2025 email evinced an intent not to continue the hearing process, and Lifted Luxury did not respond to the April 1, 2025 Order to Show Cause – Failure to Prosecute by April 11, 2025 or to any subsequent communications from me.

2. Recommended Discipline

If Lifted Luxury's request for a hearing is dismissed for failure to prosecute, there remains the question of what, if any, penalties should be imposed. The Commission's regulations provide in relevant part that if a Licensee fails to request a hearing in a timely manner, waives their right to a hearing, or defaults, the Hearing Officer may assume the truth of the allegations set forth in the notice and recommend to the Commission the appropriate disciplinary action(s), sanction(s) or fine(s) or an informal disposition of the matter. 935 CMR 500.500(6)(a) and (b). The regulations further provide that for actions without a hearing under 935 CMR 500.500(6)(a) through (c), the Hearing Officer may conduct an evidentiary hearing on the appropriateness of disciplinary action(s), sanction(s), or fine(s). 935 CMR 500.500(6)(d).

Commission regulations do not define the precise circumstances that constitute a waiver or default, but I consider Lifted Luxury’s failure to prosecute its claim to be a default.³ Black’s Law Dictionary (12th ed. 2024) defines a “default judgment” as a “judgment entered against a defendant who has failed to otherwise defend against a plaintiff’s claim,” which is effectively what Lifted Luxury has done (or not done) here. Further, the Division of Administrative Law Appeals (“DALA”), the independent Massachusetts agency that conducts hearings for multiple state agencies and also employs the Standard Rules to adjudicate disputes, has indicated that a party’s failure to prosecute a claim may result in default. See, e.g., Fox v. State Board of Retirement, No. CR-20-117, 2022 WL 16921453, at *2 (MA DALA July 29, 2022)(decision by default warranted against State Board of Retirement where it did not respond to order to show cause why a decision should not enter based on a failure to prosecute or defend under 801 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2)).

Because I am treating Lifted Luxury’s failure to prosecute its claim as a default,⁴ I will, as noted earlier, accept the factual allegations in the September 11, 2023 Order as true and move on to making a recommendation on discipline to the Commission.

a. Suspension of Licenses

The September 11, 2023 Order ordered Lifted Luxury to show cause why its three provisional licenses (MR283558, MP281939, and MC283014)(collectively, “the Licenses”) should not be suspended until May 17, 2027. For the reasons below, I recommend that the Commission declare in its Final Decision that, had the Licenses not expired, it would have had grounds to suspend the Licenses in this action until May 17, 2027.

i. Grounds for Suspension

First, I conclude that the revocation of Heneault’s Rhode Island marijuana license constituted adequate legal grounds to suspend the Licenses until May 17, 2027. One of the permissible grounds for suspending a license is that the conduct of a Marijuana Establishment demonstrates a lack of suitability as specified in 935 CMR 500.800 and 500.801. 935 CMR 500.450(11). In turn, Row 14 of Table A in 935 CMR 500.801, provides for the mandatory disqualification of a Marijuana Establishment if, in the preceding five years, a Licensee held a License that was revoked in an Other Jurisdiction. Commission regulations define “Licensee” in relevant part as “a person or entity on the application and licensed by the Commission to operate a Marijuana Establishment . . . ,” 935 CMR 500.002. Commission regulations require that Persons or Entities Having Direct or Indirect Control be listed on license applications. 935 CMR 500.101(1)(a)(1).

⁴ The Commission’s regulations do not explicitly mandate that a hearing officer issue an order to show cause for failure to prosecute or defend under 835 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2) in order to conclude that a party has defaulted. However, I thought it prudent to issue an order to show cause under 835 CMR 1.07(g)(2) because: (1) the Commission’s regulations explicitly incorporate the Formal Rules, which include 835 CMR 1.07(g)(2); (2) the order to show cause mechanism under 835 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2) provides a party with formal notice of, and the opportunity to be heard on, the potential dismissal of their claim and the resulting consequences, thereby comporting with due process requirements; and (3) the mechanism of an order to show cause under 835 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2) provides the hearing officer with increased certainty about a party’s intent to prosecute a claim.

In this case, Lifted Luxury’s license applications listed Heneault as a Person Having Direct or Indirect Authority. (Finding of Fact No. 2.) As such, Heneault was a Licensee under 935 CMR 500.002. Since Row 14 of Table A of 935 CMR 500.801 provides for the mandatory disqualification of a Marijuana Establishment if, in the preceding five years, a Licensee held a License that was revoked in an Other Jurisdiction, and Heneault’s Rhode Island marijuana license was revoked on May 17, 2022 (Finding of Fact No. 9), I find there were sufficient grounds under the regulations to suspend the Licenses until May 17, 2027 (i.e., until the expiration of the mandatory five-year disqualification period).

ii. Discipline

What discipline to recommend to the Commission as of this date is a trickier question because the Licenses have expired, and there are no active licenses to suspend.⁵ I recommend that the Commission declare in its Final Decision that had the Licenses not expired, it would have had grounds to suspend them in this action until May 17, 2027.

DALA took this approach in a recent decision, Department of Public Health (“DPH”) v. Amello, 2024 WL 4475619 (Oct. 2, 2024). In that case, DPH issued a Notice of Agency Action in 2017 in which it summarily suspended Amello’s EMT’s license and proposed to revoke it. Amello’s license then expired in 2018. The DALA magistrate observed that since Amello’s license had expired, the summary suspension no longer presented “a live dispute.” However, the magistrate said that he would address whether DPH had grounds to temporarily revoke Amello’s registration because any type of revocation would likely have an impact should Amello seek to apply for a license in the future. The magistrate went on to recommend that the Board “declare that the Department had grounds to temporarily revoke Mr. Amello’s EMT license before it expired.”

⁵ The Commission’s September 11, 2023 Order did not, as a legal matter, have the effect of suspending the Licenses on that date. Rather, any discipline could only be finalized after the time for a hearing expired, or if a hearing was requested, after the Commission issued a Final Decision under 935 CMR 500.500(12). Immediate suspension could only be ordered if the Commission had issued a summary suspension order under 935 CMR 500.350 and alleged an immediate or serious threat to the public health, safety, or welfare, neither of which the Commission did. The September 11, 2023 Order did not make clear when the suspension of the Licenses would take effect, so I asked the Commission to brief the issue. In its May 30, 2025 submission, the Commission took the position I articulate here. (Ex. A at 4.)

The same rationale applies here. Even though Lifted Luxury’s licenses have expired, a declaration that Commission had grounds to suspend them before they expired could have an impact on any future license application by Lifted Luxury. In addition, there is likely an administrative benefit to making such a declaration now, based on findings of fact, rather than not making a declaration now and reconstructing and reviewing the record de novo upon any new application. See, e.g., Wang v. Board of Registration in Medicine, 405 Mass. 15, 20 (1989)(Board has right to preserve evidence of charges. . . “otherwise witnesses may disappear and the passage of time itself may well dim or even eradicate the memory of the witnesses and thus preclude the construction of an adequate record”)(citation omitted).

iii. Suspension of Agent Registrations

Paragraph 30 of the September 11, 2023 Order stated that the Commission ordered “the immediate suspension” of the following agent registrations (collectively, “the Agent Registrations”) associated with Lifted Luxury’s provisional licenses: AR302232; AR302233; and AR302111.⁶ However, the Commission clarified in its May 30, 2025 submission that the Agent Registrations had actually expired on February 3, 2022 -- more than a year before the September 11, 2023 Order was issued. (Ex. A at 2). This fact was not included in the September 11, 2023 Order.

I recommend that the Commission not take any action concerning the Agent Registrations because they had already expired as of the date of the September 11, 2023 Order. As a result, the Commission could not have suspended the Agent Registrations in this action. This is in contrast to the Licenses, which were still active as of September 11, 2023, when the Order was issued. I underscore that if the Commission does not take any action concerning the Agent Registrations, the Agent Registrations will not be able to be readily renewed as long as Lifted Luxury’s Licenses are not renewed, given that it is Marijuana Establishments, not individuals, who apply for Agent Registrations. 935 CMR 500.030(1).

Recommended Decision and Discipline

I recommend that the Commission do the following:

- (1) Pursuant to 801 CMR 1.01(7)(g)(2), dismiss with prejudice Lifted Luxury’s October 3, 2023 request for a hearing for failure to prosecute;
- (2) Declare in its Final Decision that had the Licenses not expired, the Commission would have had grounds to suspend them in this action until May 17, 2027; and
- (3) Take no action with respect to the Agent Registrations.

⁶ The Commission acknowledged in its May 30, 2025 submission that it was incorrect for it to order the “immediate” suspension of the Agent Registrations because the Commission made no allegations of an immediate threat to the public health, safety, or welfare pursuant to 935 CMR 500.350. (Ex. A at 3-4.)

QUESTIONS AND REQUEST FOR BRIEFING

The Cannabis Control Commission (the “Commission”) submits this reply in response to the Hearing Officer’s order for information and request for briefing on May 7, 2025.

I. RELEVANT FACTS

1. According to the Massachusetts Cannabis Industry Portal (“MassCIP”), Lifted Luxury, Inc. (the “Respondent” or “Lifted Luxury”) held three provisional licenses, License Nos. MC283014, MP281939, and MR283558 (the “Provisional Licenses”);
2. In each of the license records, Cassandra Heneault (“Ms. Heneault”) is disclosed as holding 70% ownership and control interest of Lifted Luxury. See Enclosure 1, License Record (MC283014), 2; see also Enclosure 2, License Record (MP281939), 2; and Enclosure 3, License Record (MR283558), 2;
3. According to MassCIP, Ms. Heneault was also a Registered Agent for each of the Provisional Licenses, Agent Registration Card Nos. AR302111, AR302232, and AR302233;

4. Ms. Heneault's Agent Registrations expired on February 3, 2022. See Enclosure 4, Agent Registration Record (AR302111); see also Enclosure 5, Agent Registration Record (AR302232); and Enclosure 6, Agent Registration Record (AR302233);
5. On May 17, 2022, the Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation revoked the Marijuana license issued to Heneault & Co., LLC, formerly, Ellie-Cie, LLC. Enclosure 7, Rhode Island Department of Business Regulation Decision;
6. On April 26, 2023, the Commission's Executive Director determined that Ms. Heneault, and therefore Lifted Luxury, are mandatorily disqualified from licensure due to the revocation of a Marijuana license held by Ms. Heneault in Rhode Island. Enclosure 8, Adverse Suitability Determinations;
7. On September 11, 2023, the Commission issued an Order to Show Cause (the "Order") to Respondent seeking the suspension of its Provisional Licenses and Ms. Heneault's Agent Registrations due to her unsuitability under 935 CMR 500.801: Table A, Row 14 (Marijuana License or Registration Violation within the preceding five years). Enclosure 10, Order to Show Cause;
8. The effective date of the Order is written in Section IV as "September 9, 2023." Enclosure 10 at 5;
9. The effective date of the Order is written on the signature page as "September 11, 2023." Enclosure 10 at 6;
10. The certificate of service states that service of the Order was made by electronic mail to Ms. Heneault at Cassy.heneault@gmail.com on September 11, 2023. Enclosure 10 at 7;
11. Respondent submitted a hearing request form on October 3, 2023. Enclosure 11, Hearing Request;

12. At the time the Commission issued the Order, there were no active Agent Registrations affiliated with the Provisional Licenses;

13. To date, neither the Provisional Licenses nor Ms. Heneault’s Agent Registrations were suspended as a result of the Order. See Enclosures 1-3 at 10-13; see also Enclosures 4-6 at 1-2;

14. Since the Provisional Licenses were not renewed, all three expired on March 10, 2024. See Enclosures 1-3 at 1;

II. COMMISSION RESPONSES

The Commission’s responses to the questions posed by the Hearing Officer’s order on May 7, 2025, are addressed in turn.

a. The Commission Sought to have the Suspension of the Licenses held by Lifted Luxury, Inc. and Ms. Heneault’s Agent Registrations become effective upon Final Agency Action.

The Commission issued the Order pursuant to 935 CMR 500.370 that afforded Lifted Luxury a hearing right prior to the imposition of any penalty. However, certain language used in Section IV and V of the Order may be unclear regarding when the suspension of the Provisional Licenses and Ms. Heneault’s Agent Registrations was intended to take effect. The effective date of the Order written in Section IV—September 9, 2023—is also incorrect and should have mirrored the date the Order was signed, issued, and served on Ms. Heneault, September 11, 2023. Further, the Commission’s use of the term “immediate” in Paragraph 30 was in error.

In accordance with 935 CMR 500.350, suspensions of any license or agent registration before a hearing right is exhausted are intended to be reserved for instances when there is an immediate or serious threat to public health, safety or welfare. “Immediate” in that context imposes the terms of such an order be effective on a date specified, usually, 24 hours after its issuance, before the Respondent has a right to a hearing (i.e., a post-deprivation right to a hearing).

Despite the language used in the Order, the Commission made no allegation of a serious or immediate threat to public health, safety, or welfare and no suspension was imposed on the Provisional Licenses or Ms. Heneault's Agent Registrations. Generally, the Commission will impose the discipline of an order after the time limit to request a hearing expires, or if a hearing is requested, after the Hearing Officer's recommendation and the Commission's decision. In this instance, because Lifted Luxury requested a hearing and the Commission made no allegations of serious or immediate threat, a suspension would only be imposed after a hearing and the Commission's decision, i.e., following final agency action.

b. The Commission has the Authority to Seek a Suspension of an Affiliated Agent Registrations Concurrently with an Action to Suspend a License.

Pursuant to G.L. c. 94G, § 4(a), the Commission possess broad authority regarding the administration and enforcement of laws regulating and licensing Marijuana Establishments. The Commission's statutory authority includes the power to limit, condition, restrict, deny, suspend or revoke a license, as well as the ability to make a finding of suitability. See G.L. c. 94G, §§ 4(a)(xi) and (xiv). Consistent with G.L. c. 94G, § 4(a½)(xi), the Commission adopted regulations outlining its suitability standards for licensure and registration, the grounds for suspension, revocation, or denial of renewal applications, and the process in which it may seek a suspension or revocation of a License or registration. See generally 935 CMR 500.030 (requirements for agent registration), 500.032 (grounds for revocation of an agent registration card), 500.370 (process for orders to show cause), 500.450 (grounds for the suspension, revocation, or denial of renewal applications), 500.500 (establishing the process for a hearing), and 500.800-803 (suitability process).

- i. The Commission has the authority to seek the imposition of additional restrictions or sanctions concurrently with an action to suspend a license.*

As part of the Commission’s notice of administrative discipline or sanctions, the Commission may include “restriction(s) on the Licensee’s or Registrant’s operations or the sale or use of Marijuana or Marijuana Products, if any.” 935 CMR 500.370(2)(d); see also 935 CMR 500.500(3)(b)4. The Commission has understood this to mean that it can seek to impose additional restrictions or conditions on operations beyond the primary sanction. For example, in an action seeking a fine due to a licensee’s failure to accurately track Marijuana Product in Metrc, the Commission might seek that an imposed order also require the licensee to retrain its Registered Agents on proper inventory procedures. Similarly, the revocation of a license may necessarily require the termination of the Agent Registration Cards for all Registered Agents affiliated with that license. Or, in this case, the suspension of Ms. Heneault’s Agent Registrations. The Commission views these additional restrictions or sanctions as necessary to carry out its purposes as the regulating authority and in some instances is required to carry out the intent of disciplinary action. See G.L. c. 94G, § 4(a).

Additionally, under the current licensing system, the regulations require licensees to apply for registration for all of their employees, Owners, Executives, and volunteers. See 935 CMR 500.030(1). Registration of an agent is also unique to each license the agent is associated with. See 935 CMR 500.030(8). Therefore, the suspension of one agent registration does not automatically apply to all other registrations held by the same individual. After registration, the licensee, rather than the agent, is responsible for renewing the registration and notifying the Commission of any issues with or changes to the agent's status. See 935 CMR 500.030(4)-(6). Accordingly, when there is disciplinary action against a licensee, such as a suspension, the party responsible no longer has the ability to notify the Commission of matters involving its agents, making the suspension of affiliated agent registrations a necessary result. Here, when the Commission issued the Order, Ms. Heneault was the only agent affiliated with Lifted Luxury. If there were other Registered Agents, the Commission would have sought suspending their registrations throughout the pendency of any imposed suspension as well.

ii. The suspension of a License is the suspension of the Owner's Agent Registration.

In matters concerning suitability for licensure, the Commission has consistently maintained that when a Person or Entity Having Direct Control is found to be unsuitable, that unsuitability is directly imparted on the license unless cured, e.g., through the removal of the individual. This is especially the case when the unsuitable individual is the sole or majority owner and when the underlying facts and issues are identical. Therefore, in an action seeking the suspension of a license based on the unsuitability of its owner, the suspension of the license is also the suspension of that owner's agent registration.

Here, the basis for the Order seeking suspension is Ms. Heneault's unsuitability. Table A applies to her because she is a Person Having Direct Control and is the controlling owner with 70% ownership and control interest of Lifted Luxury, and the result of the precipitating issue applies to both. See 935 CMR 500.801: Table A (applying to applicants, Licensees and Persons or Entities Having Direct or Indirect Control). The precipitating issue making her and Lifted Luxury unsuitable is that she held a Marijuana license that was revoked in another jurisdiction, thereby disqualifying her and any entity she has a controlling interest in from licensure in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. See 935 CMR 500.801: Table A, Row 14 (when an applicant or Licensee held a Marijuana license that was revoked within the preceding five years the result is a Mandatory Disqualification). While a determination of suitability would typically result in the denial of an application without additional due process, because Lifted Luxury holds provisional licenses further process is required to impose a sanction, in this case a suspension. See 935 CMR 500.370(2); see also 935 CMR 500.500(2). Due to the fact that the matters at issue and the basis for the action, 935 CMR 500.450(11), are exactly the same for Lifted Luxury and its majority Owner, the Commission sought the suspension of both the Provisional Licenses and Agent Registrations through the issuance of a single order.

c. Absent an Allegation of an Immediate or Serious Threat to the Public Health, Safety, or Welfare the Commission Cannot Order an Immediate Suspension of an Agent Registration.

The only instances in which the Commission can seek an immediate suspension of a License or Agent Registration is when the Commission or Commission Delegee “determines that a Licensee or Registration or the Marijuana or Marijuana Products cultivated, produced or sold by a Licensee or Registrant pose an immediate or serious threat to the public health, safety, or welfare” and alleges that “ongoing operations without restriction during the pendency of the administrative appeal could reasonably be expected to endanger the health, safety or welfare of the public.” 935 CMR 500.350(2); see also 935 CMR 500.500(4)(c).

Though the Order purports to seek the immediate suspension of Ms. Heneault’s Agent Registrations, the Commission did not make an allegation, nor does it now allege that there was an immediate or serious threat to public health, safety, or welfare. Indeed, by the time the Commission’s issued the Order, all of Ms. Heneault’s Agent Registrations had already expired and she would not have had any permission as a Registered Agent until renewal. Nevertheless, 7 despite the language ordering an “immediate suspension”, no suspension was or has been imposed. Accordingly, to date, Ms. Heneault continues to have the ability to maintain her Agent Registration and the inclusion of the term did not pose any prejudice to her. See Craft Beer Guild, LLC v. Alcoholic Beverages Control Comm'n, 481 Mass. 506, 524, 117 N.E.3d 676, 691 (2019) (“a party seeking to set aside an agency decision must also establish that it was ‘substantially prejudiced’ by such an error”); see also G.L. c. 30A, § 14(7) (establishing standards for judicial review requiring the court to affirm the decision of an agency unless it determines that substantial rights of any party may have been prejudiced).

III. REQUESTED RELIEF

The Commission asks that you find that none of the errors discussed above result in substantial prejudice against Respondent.

Further, due to Respondent’s explicit waiver of their right to a hearing, the Hearing Officer should accept the allegations detailed in the Order as true and recommend imposition of the Commission’s requested disciplinary action without a hearing under 935 CMR 500.500(6)(a) through (c).

If the Hearing Officer requests additional briefing, the Commission is available to appear at a pre-hearing conference.

Description of Background Events: In 2022 Heneault was not granted renewal of her Rhode Island cultivator license Heneault & Co, LLC renewal date of July 11, 2021. Less than 30 days prior to the renewal of the annual license Heneault & Co loss their lease and needed to relocate. The regulatory body, the Office of Cannabis Regulation was aware and was granted the licensee a temporary discontinuance of business until the renewal date which was 30 days away.

At the time of renewal, the transfer of ownership paperwork was being drafted to transfer the license. Heneault & Co did not have a location, but the new owners did. However the transfer of ownership documents were not ready prior to the renewal date.

I was advised by the OCR that the department has 60 days to approve license transfer application. In their eyes the information about the new operator did not matter until it was approved. The OCR said that Heneault & Co, LLC did not have a location at the time of renewal, therefore they were deemed to be out of regulation and renewal was not granted and the license was revoked.

Other	Plans to Positively Impact Disproportionately Harmed People Renewal.pdf	pdf	61b9379cab6c7a4448908272	12/14/2021

Description of Progress or Success: Our commitment to Positively Impact persons harmed by cannabis prohibition will start in 2023 when we receive final licensure and open our doors.

As a part of our licensing the Commission asked for further explanation how we would market the program. Currently our marketing team is working to create informational handouts that will be sent to admissions departments for continuing education and probation departments throughout the Commonwealth. Aside from this we will be promoting our scholarship on our website, in-store and on social media.

The plan is to launch this section of our website as we get final licensure for our Cultivation License. This would allow us to get five $1000 scholarships in 2023!

Background Question: yes

Description of Background Events: In 2022 Heneault was not granted renewal of her Rhode Island cultivator license Heneault & Co, LLC renewal date of July 11, 2021. Less than 30 days prior to the renewal of the annual license Heneault & Co loss their lease and needed to relocate. The regulatory body, the Office of Cannabis Regulation was aware and was granted the licensee a temporary discontinuance of business until the renewal date which was 30 days away.

It was impossible to renegotiate the lease, find a new location or transfer the ownership to a new location within 30 days.

At the time of renewal, the transfer of ownership paperwork was being drafted to transfer the license. Heneault & Co did not have a location, but the new owners did. However the transfer of ownership documents were not ready prior to the renewal date.

I was advised by the OCR that the department has 60 days to approve license transfer application. In their eyes the information about the new operator did not matter until it was approved. The OCR said that Heneault & Co, LLC did not have a location at the time of renewal, therefore they were deemed to be out of regulation and renewal was not granted and the license was revoked.

Description of Progress or Success: Our commitment to Positively Impact persons harmed by cannabis prohibition will start in 2023 when we receive final licensure and open our doors.

As a part of our licensing the Commission asked for further explanation how we would market the program. Currently our marketing team is working to create informational handouts that will be sent to admissions departments for continuing education and probation departments throughout the Commonwealth. Aside from this we will be promoting our scholarship on our website, in-store and on social media.

The plan is to launch this section of our website as we get final licensure for our Cultivation License. This would allow us to get five $1000 scholarships in 2022!

Background Question: no

Description of Background Events: In 2022 Heneault was not granted renewal of her Rhode Island cultivator license Heneault & Co, LLC renewal date of July 11, 2021. Less than 30 days prior to the renewal of the annual license Heneault & Co loss their lease and needed to relocate. The regulatory body, the Office of Cannabis Regulation was aware and was granted the licensee a temporary discontinuance of business until the renewal date which was 30 days away.

It was impossible to renegotiate the lease, find a new location or transfer the ownership to a new location within 30 days.

At the time of renewal, the transfer of ownership paperwork was being drafted to transfer the license. Heneault & Co did not have a location, but the new owners did. However the transfer of ownership documents were not ready prior to the renewal date.

I was advised by the OCR that the department has 60 days to approve license transfer application. In their eyes the information about the new operator did not matter until it was approved. The OCR said that Heneault & Co, LLC did not have a location at the time of renewal, therefore they were deemed to be out of regulation and renewal was not granted and the license was revoked.

Description of Progress or Success: Our commitment to Positively Impact persons harmed by cannabis prohibition will start in 2022 when we receive final licensure and open our doors.

As a part of our licensing the Commission asked for further explanation how we would market the program. Currently our marketing team is working to create informational handouts that will be sent to admissions departments for continuing education and probation departments throughout the Commonwealth. Aside from this we will be promoting our scholarship on our website, in-store and on social media.

The plan is to launch this section of our website as we get final licensure for our Cultivation License. This would allow us to get five $1000 scholarships in 2022!
